The image displays two side-by-side screenshots of a mobile application's 'Create Account' screen. Both screens have a light green header bar with a back arrow icon and a paw print icon followed by the text 'Create Account'. Below the header is a large, rounded rectangular input field. The left screenshot shows five smaller input fields below it, each with a placeholder label and a clear button icon on the right. The right screenshot shows the same five input fields, but the first four now contain sample data: 'First Name' has 'Gela', 'Last Name' has 'Corpuz', 'Email' has 'angelaescariocorpuz@gmail.com', and 'Password' has '.....'. The 'Confirm your password' field also contains '.....'. At the bottom of each screen is a large brown 'SIGN UP' button with white text, and below it is a smaller brown button labeled 'OR SIGN UP WITH GOOGLE'.
